Our Vision

To reconnect fellow Jews and all people seeking spiritual enlightenment with the beliefs and traditions of Judaism
through the arts.

Our approach explores Judaism through music, art, drama and film, blending works of art with prayer to heighten the experience.

To laugh often
and much, to win
the respect of intelligent people
and the affection
of children, to appreciate beauty...
[and] to know
even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived — that is success.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

God, turn to us
and grant us your
merciful protection,
and in that protection, give us strength.

— adaptation of Psalm 86

Every place where you raise your eyes to Heaven
is a sanctuary.

— the Baal Shem Tov

Dear Friends,

We are excited to announce that Temple of the Arts is creating a once-in-a-lifetime edition of our new congregational prayer book, meant for use in both worship at home and in synagogue. Sacred Space brings together some of Jewish tradition's most enduring liturgical masterpieces with deeply powerful meditations and creative works by world-class artists such as Marc Chagall, Georgia O'Keefe, Vincent Van Gogh, Paula Modersohn-Becker, and more.

Included will be prayers and blessings for special occasions, for the home, for safe journeys, for our country and for the State of Israel, as well as for lifecycle moments including birth, Bar and Bat Mitzvah, illness, recovery and end-of-life.

Your generous support will enable us to make this edition available for our synagogue use as well as a gift for special occasions. It will also be available in an e-book format, on templeofthearts.org, with accompanying musical selections by our cantors and our musicians. This will support our music for the High Holy Days and throughout the year.

Please help us to achieve our vision of reconnecting this generation and future generations with our faith by participating in the sponsorship of Sacred Space. As the Almighty has blessed us in this land of freedom and opportunity, let us now share those blessings with others through this inspirational work.

Rabbi David Baron and Cantor Nathan Lam
